Sunbrella Decorative and Contract Upholstery Fabrics California Prop 65 Compliance

Glen Raven Custom Fabrics, LLC declares that all Sunbrella Decorative and Contract Upholstery Fabrics meet California Proposition 65 requirements in the new version effective August 30, 2018.

Sunbrella Decorative and Contract Upholstery Fabrics do not require any type of Prop 65 warning label.

In addition, these fabrics have been certified to meet the stringent chemical emission requirements for UL GreenGuard Gold certification. The UL GreenGuard Gold Certification program complies with the State of California's Department of Health Services Standard Practice (CA Section 01350) for testing chemical emissions from building products used in schools, offices and other sensitive environments.
